

Sewer Hookup Denied

Thompson Hills Building Delay Hinged to Survey

By W. D. HILL

A sewer connection authorization was denied temporarily by City Council Monday night for the coin operated laundry and auto wash building partially constructed in the Thompson Hills Shopping center complex.

Denial came after a recommendation for that action from the Sewer Bonds Steering Committee and an explanation by City Engineer Bob Cunningham of the overload that is anticipated if the connection is allowed.

Rev. Walter P. Arnold chairman of the steering committee, reported on the panel's meetings and what he described as "the only decision we could possibly reach until the Burns & McDonnell Engineer survey now underway is concluded."

Construction on the building was halted more than two weeks ago when the city engineer advised the contractor that no authorization would be granted to connect onto the city's sewer system.

Rev. Arnold, reading from a prepared statement, said: "No individual member of this committee has an ax to grind, we are merely trying to see that the best interest of the public and city is served. Our recommendations to you must necessarily be based on the judgment and advice of the competent engineers retained for this purpose. . . we sincerely believe to ignore their recommendation will invite disaster for the future and break faith with our citizens."

E. W. Thompson developer of the Thompson Hills Shopping Center, charged that the action was aimed at him personally. "It's just an attempt to stop us," Thompson retorted. "Put us back out in the county and we'll build our own sewers," he said. Thompson was referring to the April 7 annexation of the shopping center area.

Engineer Cunningham, in explaining the sewage conditions in the area in question, said that the laundry-car wash building was under construction before the city discovered it and issued a building permit. He said that some sewer line had been laid and covered with dirt before the operation was discovered.

Cunningham and Rev. Arnold said that the original floor space for the shopping center was 83,200 square feet, and that this plan was discussed with C. A. Neumayer, Burns & McDonnell Engineer, and that facilities originally listed by the developers could be accommodated by the eight inch sewer originally planned and installed.

"We have been advised," Rev. Arnold said, "that the . . . laundry with its 30 washers and the car wash. . . will discharge not only excessive flow of water but also large amounts of detergent."

Sanity Exam Requested In Slaying at Lake

CAMDENTON, Mo. (AP)—A sanity examination for John R. Abercrombie, 22, of Tulsa, Okla., was requested in a motion filed in Circuit Court Monday.

Abercrombie is in the county jail at Springfield charged with first degree murder in the slaying of a Hutchinson, Kan., couple at a motel in Osage Beach last May.

Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Bybee of Hutchinson were shot as they unloaded luggage from their car. Bybee was a salesman and he had come to a real estate men's convention.

Officers then quoted Abercrombie as saying "I just had the impulse to kill somebody." He had followed the Bybees to the motel.

Abercrombie's girl friend, Kathryn, 23, of Tulsa, is free on $3,000 bond after having been charged with being an accessory.

The Circuit Court has not acted on the motion that Abercrombie be sent to the state hospital at Nevada.

TURNED DOWN WITH THANKS—This five-month-old Pettis County beagle hound, which was a gift to President Lyndon Johnson, arrived in Washington, D. C. about noon today, but the White House declined the Missouri animal with thanks. E. D. Hollstein, Rushville, Neb. attorney at law, purchased the female beagle from the Rev. William Freeman, pastor of Camp Branch Baptist Church southwest of here, and had Rev. Freeman ship the dog to LBJ compliments of Hollstein's four daughters. Rev. Freeman posed with the dog Monday just before it was shipped. White House aides told the Associated Press that since the death of "Her," one of LBJ's famed beagles, they have been offered some 300, but declined all of them. Mrs. Elizabeth Carpenter, press secretary to Mrs. Johnson, said she had called Hollstein in Nebraska to explain the White House policy. Hollstein said he would find someone in his community to whom to give the dog and would give it in honor of the President's love for animals. White House aides planned to meet the little beagle when she arrived in Washington to see that she was exercised, fed and checked over by a veterinarian before she was sent back to Hollstein. ## Gunshot Kills Woman At Versailles

Mrs. Edith Pearl Fields, 18, Versailles, was fatally wounded in a gun accident about 5:30 p. m. Monday at the home of her brother-in-law, Carlos Fields, Versailles.

Morgan County Sheriff J. T. Hull reported the accident happened after Mrs. Fields' husband, Billy Everett Fields, 20, and his brother, Carlos Fields, had returned from target practice at the Versailles city dump. Hull stated that both men had checked their guns before returning and they thought they were empty.

The sheriff said that upon their return, the men went to Carlos Fields' residence. It was reported that Billy Fields was "horsing around" with the gun, a .22 automatic rifle, and that in doing so, he first pointed the gun at himself, pulled the trigger, and nothing happened. He then pointed the gun at his wife, pulled the trigger and the gun

Building, Plumbing Permits Under Engineer

Shift In City Organization

By W. D. HILL

News Editor The Democrat
Sedalia's City Engineer, Bob Cunningham, has been given supervisory control of the departments of building inspector and plumbing inspector. The action came in Monday night's session of City Council, following a recommendation by the Sewer Bonds Steering Committee.

Just a few hours earlier, this reporter delved through 11 months of records in the Building Inspector's office, which reveal that the city could be losing money in its issuance of building permits.

More significant in council's action is the fact that the city engineer's supervision of building, plumbing and sewer permits may prevent the possibility of a condition in which a building being partially constructed, legally, may later be halted for lack of a sewer permit.

Many homes were built or altered in the city during the first 11 months of 1964, without plans and specifications being formally filed with the building inspector as required by City Ordinance 4-201.

Without such plans and specifications, the exact amount of revenue the city may have overlooked cannot be determined. But home building and altering were not the only areas of construction and renovation where the city probably has inadvertently lost money.

Some business firms remodeled structures without purchasing a building permit as outlined in the city ordinance. Others built additions without permits.

Without plans and specifications the building inspector must assume that the information furnished him by the permit applicant is factual. One permit was issued for a $12,000 home and when the home was completed it was advertised for sale as being in "the $30,000 range."

One entire building is known to have been relocated without a permit and several major renovation projects were carried out without permits.

The ordinance provides that: "Before the erection, construction or alteration of any building or structure or part thereof, and before the erection, construction or alteration of any building, structure or part thereof, is commenced, the owner or lessee in connection with the proposed erection or alteration, shall submit to the building inspector, in duplicate, the plans and specifications of such proposed work and such structural drawings of the said proposed work as the building inspector may require, all of which shall be a statement in writing, giving the full name and address, street and number of the owner. . ."

According to City Clerk, Ralph Dedrick, the ordinance has not been revised.

The ordinance also provides that no permit shall be issued until plans and specifications have been filed with the building inspector and approved.

"Ordinary repairs of structures may be made without notice to the building inspector," the ordinance states "but such repairs shall not be construed to include the cutting away of any stone or brick wall, or any portion thereof, the removal or cutting of any beams or supports. . ."

It is highly unlikely the city would enforce this pertinent paragraph: "Structures hereafter erected without permit, or not in conformity with this ordinance, shall be removed."

In checking individual record cards on permits issued for the period Jan. 1 to Dec. 7, it was noted that one contractor for a major project had not filed plans and specifications to date and that the date the permit was issued was after completion of the project.

The building inspector had arrived at one "cost estimate figure" and the contractor for the project had contested the figure

Baker Link to Bank Charter Uncovered by Investigators

Committee Studies Depth Current Inquiry Will Go

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Senate's investigators of Bobby Baker were told today that a group of Californians was granted a national bank charter very shortly after it retained a Washington lobbyist and friend of Baker's for $5,000.

Soon after completion of that phase of its inquiry, the Senate Rules Committee planned a private session for a probable decision on how much further to carry its sometimes stormy study of Baker's affairs.

Maurice Hughett, now a Falls Church, Va., businessman, identified the lobbyist as Wayne Bromley, a former Senate employee. He said that at Bromley's request, he delivered the $5,000 check to Baker. Hughett told the committee he learned later that Baker, resigned secretary to the Senate's Democratic majority, had cashed the check for Bromley in the Senate disbursing office.

Asked if he knew the reason, Hughett said Bromley told him he was buying a house at the time and also owed some money and was "taking care of his obligations."

Bromley, now a coal industry lobbyist who used to work under Baker in the Senate, was sitting by in the big Senate caucus room waiting to be called for questioning.

Hughett testified that he recommended to Sherman Leland, his nephew and one of the organizers of the Redwood National Bank in San Rafael Calif., that Bromley be retained for help in getting a charter from the comptroller of the currency.

He said Leland told him in the summer of 1962 that the organizers of the bank were very concerned because, three months after applying for a national charter, they hadn't made much progress.

Hughett said he told Leland it would be "a good idea to retain someone in Washington to pursue" the application and suggested the employment of Bromley. He added that he suggested that $5,000 would be reasonable fee.

CATV Plan Is Tabled By Council

More Investigation Needed Is Opinion Of 5 Councilmen

By D. KELLY SCRUTON

A motion for City Council to vote on whether it would issue a license for CATV in Sedalia was sidetracked, Monday night. Councilman Robert Bader brought up the subject. The motion was tabled on a motion by Councilman R. N. Snively and passed by a 5-3 vote.

Under public welfare portion of the meeting Bader took the floor and said, "We have been hashing around CATV for 10 months now. I think we should take a vote on it to see if we are going to issue a license."

He then said "I move we take a vote," and it was seconded by Councilman James Askren.

This brought a discussion and Councilman Walter Jesse took the floor. He said, "I agree we have been kicking this thing around, but if we vote tonight I'll have to vote no."

Councilman Floyd Priddy, spoke up and said, "I truly favor CATV, but we have another town or two to check on. Personally I am not ready to vote."

Councilman Robert Wells, said "We went to Manhattan where they have one TV station there and we saw one in Arkansas. It works in Arkansas as good as in Manhattan."

Bader then said "We go here and there, and only a few of us seem to be interested, we can't seem to get all the Councilmen to go and see for themselves. If we are going to drag our feet I can't help it. Let's vote and if some want to vote no, that's fine."

Councilman J. C. Griffin then said "I agree with Mr. Priddy." Then continued: "I want to call your attention to the editorial in The Democrat on the Boonville situation. They are all up in litigation and I don't want the City to get tied up in something that we might avoid, over poles, as referred to by Mr. (George)

Windsor Boy Wounded By .22 Bullet

Charlie Bill Holmes, 17, Windsor, was admitted to Bothwell Hospital Monday night suffering from a .22-caliber gunshot wound in the chest.

Young Holmes, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Holmes, was in critical condition late Monday night, but had shown improvement and the hospital listed his condition as "fair" at early afternoon Tuesday.

Henry County Sheriff Wilbur Schmidt, who investigated the incident, said the youth had been despondent for some time and the wound was self-inflicted.

Holmes went to the trailer home of Edward Hutchens, who resides in John's Trailer Court at the west edge of Windsor, about 8:20 p.m., the sheriff said. The wound apparently occurred a short time before in the vicinity of the Highway 52 overpass.

The youth was taken to Windsor Hospital where he was given emergency treatment and then brought to Bothwell Hospital in a Huston ambulance, accompanied by Dr. C. M. Thurber, Windsor. He was attended here by Dr. Thurber and Dr. R. L. Glass.

The Missouri State Highway Patrol established a relay from Kansas City to bring seven pints of blood for the youth.

Thompson Bids On Signs

$100 Offer Delays Billboard Contract

By D. KELLY SCRUTON

A resolution which would authorize Mayor L. L. Studer to enter into a contract with the Weatherby Advertising Co., for billboards on various city parking lots, at $50 a year for each, hit a snag at the city council meeting, Monday night. An offer to take them at $100 was made by E. W. Thompson, when he heard the resolution read and asked what it was all about.

Thompson asked if that was $50 for each lot, and if so he would pay $100 for the right, but it was explained it was $50 for each board. Thompson said, "That's too cheap. I'll give you $100 a sign and pay you tonight if you want it."

Councilman Robert Bader said, "Under the circumstances, I believe we had better hold this up until the next meeting." Other councilmen were in agreement after they heard the $100 offer.

Actually it was a renewal of some of the signs, but the resolution includes additional sign boards on other parking lots of the city.

Another resolution was given passage under an emergency clause which grants the State Highway Department a five foot strip off of the Pacific and Ohio, parking lot for the new highway which comes into Sedalia from the north. The state will pay the city $800 for the easement. This improvement is part of the Urban Plan.

A resolution was passed by the council which commends the Sedalia merchants and in-

Lauds High Quality Milk Processing

A letter concerning a report of Sedalia's milk sanitation status was read at Monday's City Council meeting at the request of Mayor L. L. Studer. The letter was from Eugene C. Viets, assistant chief milk inspector of the State Veterinary Public Health Unit, Division of Health.

Grading of various milk suppliers to Sedalia was conducted between Nov. 5 and Nov. 10, at which time Sedalia's milk inspector, Raymond Whittall, was accompanied on the survey by representatives of the state. The two local plants were Tullis-Hall and Beatrice Foods Co., who obtain milk from Pettis, Benton and Morgan Counties. These plants and farms are under routine supervision of Sedalia. In three years the comparison of 1961 and that of this year shows a decided increase for betterment, sanitation and control.

Outside sources ratings likewise had a decided increase and those plants were listed as Adams Dairy, Blue Springs; Seal-test Foods, Kansas City; Foremost Dairies Inc., Kansas City; Beatrice Foods Co., St. Joseph, and Safeway Milk Plant, Kansas City, Kan.

The letter in summary said, "The results of this survey indicate an over-all increase in the rating of milk produced under the supervision of the City of Sedalia. This increase reflects the interest of officials of the city in insuring the citizens of Sedalia and surrounding area with a safe and wholesome milk supply."

Barry Williams, 705 West Broadway, chairman of the committee of the Sedalia Jaycees working for establishment of the college, submitted the data to the board. Included were required information on the size and valuation of the proposed district, student load and educational interests within the area.

Williams said the State Board of Education is to meet again in January, although a date has not yet been set. A decision on the Sedalia proposal is expected at that time. Should the board rule favorably on the plan, a campaign would be launched immediately for a vote at the regular school elections in April.

Ordinance For Lights In New Area

City Council voted Monday night to have an ordinance drawn which will create lighting along U. S. Highway 50 in the newly annexed section from the old City limits to the new City limits to the west, and lighting new Highway 50 from Emmet east to the 12th street underpass of the Missouri Pacific railroad.

Also included in the proposed ordinance is lights from Main street to Broadway on new U.S. Highway 65. Cost of the new lights will amount to an increase in the street light bill $6,134.15.

Councilman J. C. Griffin read a report on the proposed lights explaining the installation. There will be eighteen 6,000 Lumen lights on wood poles along the north side of Highway 50 to the west costing $27.75 each for a total cost of $499.50; 12 lights of 175 watt Mercury Vapor on wood poles on Thompson Blvd., from 16th street to Highway 50 at a cost of $40 each for a total cost of $480; 26 400-watt Mercury Vapor lights on steel poles from Main street to Broadway on new Highway 65 staggered spacing (uniballast) costing $85 or a total of $2,210; on East Highway 50 from New York to Marshall there will be 36 400-watt Mercury Vapor lights on staggered steel poles (uniballast) at a cost of $85 for a total of $3,060.00; East Highway 50 from Marshall Avenue to the Underpass there will be wood poles outside of curves only (uniballast) 11 lights of 400-watt Mercury Vapor at $73 or a total cost of $876.00.

On Crescent Drive and East 12th street from Emmet to the Missouri Pacific Underpass will be 17 lights of 4,000 Lumen at $24.40 a cost of $414.80. The total proposed lights total $7,540.30. A savings of $1,406.15 for lights to be removed from old Highway 50, and street intersection lights on new 65 actually makes the increase $6,134.15.

JuCo Decision To State Board Of Education

A decision as to whether or not an election may be held proposing establishment of a junior college here now lies with the State Board of Education and the answer is expected in mid-January.

Petitions bearing 5 per cent of the voters in the 24 districts of the proposed junior college area results of surveys and data concerning the school were turned over to the state board Monday while they were in session at Jefferson City.

Barry Williams, 705 West Broadway, chairman of the committee of the Sedalia Jaycees working for establishment of the college, submitted the data to the board. Included were required information on the size and valuation of the proposed district, student load and educational interests within the area.

Ann Landers

Answers Your Problems

Dear Ann Landers: A few days ago I witnessed an incredible scene. A hulk of a middle-aged man, about 60 pounds overweight, was sprawled across the form of his critically ill mother as she lay semiconscious in a hospital bed. The man was sobbing uncontrollably, begging his mother to try to remember what she had done with her will—the one leaving everything to him.

The other members of the family were outraged by his indecent display of avarice. Suddenly he pulled himself together and bellowed, "I hope you have good hospitalization insurance, Mother. These lingering illnesses can cost a fortune."

His brothers and sisters want nothing more to do with him and he has asked me to patch things up. He said his mother loved peace and harmony and that she would be unhappy about the trouble in the family.

I believe they are justified in drumming him out of the tribe. What shall I do?—THERE.

Dear There: Stay out of this meat grinder. Whatever truce you might negotiate would be short-lived at best. This is

THEIR problem and it should be settled by THEM.

Dear Ann Landers: I am a married woman with two teenage children. Five years ago I became involved with a bachelor and became pregnant. My doctor told me I had a tumor—until I was seven months along. You can imagine my shock when he told me I would have a baby within eight weeks.

The little boy is almost three years old, and unfortunately, is a carbon copy of my bachelor friend. No one has said anything but a person would have to be blind not to see the resemblance.

Should I tell the boy who his real father is as soon as he is old enough to go to school? I'm afraid if I don't tell him someone else will and I'd hate to have the child hurt that way. I need your advice.—VIRGO.

Dear Virgo: Many look-alikes are not related. Because of your guilty conscience you probably are exaggerating the resemblance in your mind's eye.

Don't tell the child—or anyone else—that your husband is not the boy's father. And for heaven's sake, get another doctor! ! !

Dear Ann Landers: My wife is one of the sweetest girls in the world. Delores has given me a fine family and we have just about everything we could ask for.

The problem is that whenever we go to a party Delores passes out cold as a mackerel after two cocktails. The poor girl gets into arguments and says insulting things to her best friends. When she begins to remember what she said and did she goes into a depression.

I know Delores is not an alcoholic because she never drinks at home—only when we go out. Moreover, if she were an alcoholic she'd be able to hold more than two drinks, wouldn't she?

This has been going on for two years. Every time it happens Delores takes an oath on her mother's life that she will never touch another drop of alcohol but when she gets out of my sight at a party she's as good as passed out. What can I do to help her?—D.F.L.

Dear D.F.L.: Your wife's form of alcoholism is unusual. And she needs help. It's useless, however, to try to force help on people who do not believe they need it. When (and if) she expresses the need for help, suggest A.A.

Ann Landers will be glad to help you with your problems. Send them to her in care of this Newspaper enclosing a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

Most Want Adventure

White Mercenaries a Tough Group of Hired Combat Men

LEOPOLDVILLE, the Congo (AP) — Some came for adventure and some for pay. Some came for a chance to serve the cause of a peaceful Africa, as they see it.

They are the men the world calls Premier Moise Tshombe's "white mercenaries" — several hundred volunteers spearheading Tshombe's drive against the Red-backed Congolese rebels.

What are they like? Take British Lt. Jeremy Spencer, 25, a scion of a rich north of England family.

Pay meant next to nothing to him. Adventure did, and he died with a rebel bullet in his head as he sat in the front line in a deck chair, languidly directing the battle with a sword.

Grizzled and tattooed veterans of many wars, whose every second word is a curse, still go misty-eyed when they talk of him.

They miss the way this tall, slender Englishman gave orders in his aristocratic drawl. They miss, above all, his ice-cold nonchalance in the face of danger.

The last month of fighting their way 600 miles to Stanleyville, capital of the rebel "Congolese People's Republic," has thinned the mercenary ranks down to a lean, mean residue.

For almost every one of the 200 or so soldiers from South Africa or Rhodesia still in the Congo, a would-be mercenary fighter has been put aboard a southbound plane for home or has deserted without waiting for his pay.

"There were drunks, drug addicts, coffee shop cowboys, homosexuals and cowards," says Maj. Michael Hoare, the tough chief of Tshombe's English-speaking men.

There still are some unlovely specimens among his men — killers of unarmed civilians and looters.

"Let's face it," says Hoare. "If we had only hired angels, we'd have never got together the labor force needed for this sort of job."

Hoare, 44, a veteran of war behind the Japanese lines in Burma and in Tshombe's secessionist state of Katanga, has little more than his own personality to back up his orders. The Congolese army's disciplinary code is almost nonexistent.

Said Lt. John Peters, a former British paratrooper from Leeds: "If any of my men answers back, I take him round the corner and use my fists."

Hoare's most trusted officers fought for Tshombe in his secessionist days. They formed the tiste Junior High School, Hickman Mills; and Delta Joyce Greenawalt, Route 4, William Chrisman High School, Independence.

small nucleus who recruited the others through advertisements in South African and Rhodesian newspapers.

Men flocked to sign on for base pay of 130 pounds sterling — $364 — a month as volunteers. Officers and noncoms earn up to three times more. Mercenaries also are paid about $16 a day danger money when they are in battle.

Only half of their pay is in foreign currency sent to their banks at home. The rest is paid in Congolese francs which cannot be taken out of the country.

Each man is entitled to two weeks' paid home leave at the end of his six-month contract.

Each man also has a life insurance policy for $20,000 payable to his next of kin. Nearly 20 families of Hoare's men already have qualified.

Connie Had No Doubts On Stardom

By BOB THOMAS
AP Movie-Television Writer
HOLLYWOOD (AP) — The one person who has never doubted that Connie Stevens would be a star is — Connie Stevens.
She has a way about her, a kind of sunny confidence that sweeps all doubt away. Listening to her, you are convinced that everything is going swimmingly, professionally and personally.
In plain fact, she is enjoying her best season. After a faltering start, her television show with George Burns, "Wendy and Me," seems to be in the safe column. This has left her tired but exhilarated.
"It's great that the show is going so well, especially since we had the toughest competition in television," she commented. (The ABC show faces Lucille Ball and Andy Williams). "Nobody is going to take Lucy off the air — I'll fight them if they try — and it's hard to beat the only weekly musical-variety show on TV. But one of the recent ratings showed we were ahead."
"It's fun to be carrying a show, but boy, is it work! I know now what Laurence Olivier meant when he said the most important factor for success as an actor was not talent but energy. They had to move my dressing room next door to the stage so I could save the walk."

Connie's cheerful attitude toward her work is in contrast to her years with "Hawaiian Eye." Then she was in frequent skirmish with the Warner Bros. brass.
"Now their approach is entirely different," she said. "When I go to ask to do the Perry Como show in April, the wheels start turning. They gave me a percentage of the series, which has never happened at Warners before, and all my outside salaries. That's no small concession, because I can earn 10 times my studio salary by doing a guest shot on another show."
On the personal side, she still seems honeymoony over her year-old marriage to actor Jim Stacy.

"We've adjusted to the fact that my career is a step ahead of his," she remarked. "But those things change. Jim is up for a television series of his own, and I hope he'll be getting the break he deserves."

Assisting in the double ring ceremony was the Rev. Fred Boatright.

Mr. Freeman is pastor of Camp Branch Baptist Church, Green Ridge, and a former Racine, Wis., Baptist minister. The bride was given in marriage by her father. ## Freshman Crop Continues To Crowd Colleges

CINCINNATI, (AP) — For every five freshmen who attended college last year, there are now almost six potential members of the class of 1968, a Cincinnati educator says.

Dr. Garland Parker, registrar of the University of Cincinnati, said Sunday night his annual survey of 1,111 accredited schools showed there are 17.3 per cent more freshmen than a year ago.

"If we take account only of the pool of potential applicants available, we may expect another 10 to 12 per cent increase of freshmen next year," said Dr. Parker, who made his study for "School and Society" Journal.

"In 1966 there may be a small decrease, in 1967 and 1968 there will be little change, but steady increases should be resumed in 1969 and thereafter."

Dr. Parker's study showed there are now 4,118,735 students attending classes — 2,813,328 of them full time — and he warned that in a few years "our institutions of higher education will find themselves grappling with the educational challenge of the century."

"If they are not ready, a crash program of preparation should be the order of the day."

Missouri University ranks 13th among the 30 schools in the nation with the largest number of full-time students. M. U. has 22,529 on its four campuses.

Missouri University is 15th in grand-total enrollments with 30,304.

Construction Confidence Still High

By SAM DAWSON
AP Business News Analyst
NEW YORK (AP) — Winter's first onslaughts may be putting a crimp on construction here and there but not in the industry's confidence that still another good year lies ahead.

Construction poured about $62 billion into the economy in 1963, and in the first 11 months of this year was running 6 per cent ahead of that.

Once feared as a possible drag on 1965's economic growth because of a slowdown in home building, construction in general now is billed to add at least a moderate lift next year.

Housing accounts for about one-third of the total and may be less than spectacular. Many elements in the other two-thirds continue to boom.

Census Bureau figures for November show actual construction, figured at a seasonally adjusted annual rate, running at $65.6 billion ahead of both October 1964 and November 1963.

This helps offset the pessimism generated by the October reports of another statistic, contract awards. These had dropped 7 per cent from a year ago, largely because of the sharpest decline of this year in the residential field.

Contract awards point ahead and any drop if prolonged is disturbing. But economists point out that other forward-looking signs are good. Spending for several other forms of construction seem sure to rise.

These include new highways, school building, manufacturing plants. Plans have been announced for expansion in all three fields.

Office building has topped out in some regions, continues at a fast pace in others. For the nation as a whole, office building may stay around this year's rate — far from a drag on the economy, but still no boost.

Much of the slowdown has been charged to overbuilding in some communities, and largely in apartment houses where vacancy rates have been rising.

All of this is expected to change in the next few years as the many who were born in the middle and late '40s become young adults and move, first into apartments, and then into homes of their own.

But next year, if construction is to help the economy grow, the accent will be more on spending by federal, state and local governments, and expansion by industries. The climb from the $55 billion of 1961 to the current annual rate of $65 billion is expected to continue.

Construction Slated For Knob Body Shop

Construction will begin soon on a Butler-type building at 108-110 South State Street in Knob Noster, to be occupied by the Franklin Body Shop. Razing began recently on the buildings presently on the property.

The new building will be 40 by 72 feet, with brick front. Tempel-Callison Construction Company of Sedalia is the contractor. Completion date is scheduled for sometime in January.

The building at 108 State was recently purchased by Charles Covey from Mrs. Roy Clear. The building has been there for many years and has housed several different businesses.

The tin building at 110 State also owned by Mr. Covey, has been used as a garage for the Knob Noster fire truck.

Miss Lunexa M'Keehan Named For Award

The awardee is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred N. McKeehan.

Askew Gives Travelogue Of His Visit

Wilbert C. Askew, 1309 West Third Street, presented a travelogue in colored slides of his visit last August to Russia, Yugoslavia and Italy before the members of the Sedalia Rotary Club on Monday noon at Hotel Bothwell.

Askew was one of 24 people from this area who participated in the People-to-People tour of England, Belgium and Switzerland as well as the other countries named.

In addition to city life and important buildings and places in the countries visited, many of his slides covered the large crop fields, methods of feeding poultry and livestock milking, and equipment used on the large collective farms in Russia.

The speaker was presented by Elmer McClung, December program chairman.

At the request of President Omer West, the club membership voted to purchase a larger screen for use in presenting the Travel and Adventure series of colored pictures and narrations under sponsorship by the club.

Ralph Walker, who is in charge of arrangements and program for the Rotary Christmas party to be held Monday evening Dec. 14, reported an enjoyable program has been arranged for Rotarians, their wives and guests.

Guests presented by P. E. Milster were: Merrill Strombom, Sedalia, guest of Bob Phillips; Harry Benson, Kansas City, guest of Martin Goodrich; Lyle Aggeler and Charles Meyer, student guests from Sacred Heart High School, and David Dougherty and Ernie Hiatt, student guests from Smith-Cotton High School.

Invocation was given by the Rev. Marvin Sackschewsky. Group singing was led by Dick Snow with Mrs. Lillian Maynard at the piano.

Criticizes The Yuletide Postal Stamp

WASHINGTON (AP) — Rep. Melvin R. Laird has criticized the 1964 Yuletide postal stamp and urged issuance of Christmas stamps with a religious theme such as a Nativity scene — "not the commercialized symbol of a Christmas tree or Santa Claus."

In a letter to Postmaster General John A. Gronouski, the Wisconsin Republican said many controversial issues have arisen in recent years over the principle of separation of church and state.

"There is one issue, however, over which there should be no controversy because it in no way concerns the separation of church and state," Laird wrote. "That issue is the annual issuance of Christmas stamps by the Post Office Department."

"Again this year the Post Office has issued a highly commercialized stamp which purports to convey the 'spirit' of Christmas but which in no way symbolizes the true meaning of Christmas."

He has urged for years, Laird said, and in the past has introduced legislation calling on the Post Office Department to use the Nativity scene on its annual Christmas stamp.

The Post Office Department's special stamp committee, Laird said, turned down the Nativity scene for a Christmas stamp on the basis that it would commemorate a religious holiday.

"This argument has no relevance to this issue," he wrote. "Christmas is celebrated each year to honor the birthday of Jesus Christ. Even those who do not acknowledge Him as the Son of God recognize that He was a great figure in history."

"A Christmas stamp commemorating His birthday should in some way convey that fact and not the commercialized symbol of a Christmas tree or Santa Claus."

Christ is the spiritual leader of millions of Americans and of millions the world over, Laird said.

Reshuffling In Wake Of TV Ratings

By CYNTHIA LOWRY
AP Television-Radio Writer
NEW YORK (AP) — The dust kicked up by the new national Nielsen report had not even begun to settle when ABC announced a plan to shake up its weekday afternoon schedule starting Dec. 28.

In the process of reshuffling its time spots and, adding a new soap opera called "Flame in the Wind," plus what are euphemistically called "selected re-runs," of old "Donna Reed Shows," two game shows will be removed.

Both are out of the prolific Goodson-Todman packaging shop, but neither has been an outstanding hit: "Get the Message" and "Missing Links."

Television's method of measuring the size of its audience by using estimates by the A. C. Nielsen research organization is often criticized, but after Monday's excitement inside the three networks there can be little doubt that the findings are accepted as valid. At any rate, all three seemed relieved to find that, in Nielsen's eyes, they were practically tied for audience favor.

Some new programs, however, received disappointing ratings in the report, among them NBC's "The Rogues" and "Man from U.N.C.L.E.," CBS' "Slattery's People," "The Reporter" and "The Entertainers," and ABC's "12 O'Clock High," "Bing Crosby Show" and "Valentine's Day."

Not one of them reached an 18 rating, the magic minimum figure to be considered on mod-

Okay School Crossing On East Highway

School children residing in Southeast Sedalia are going to get another street crossing at new U. S. Highway 50 due to the appeal of Councilman Robert Wells and Edgar Neighbors of the Third Ward. It will be at the crest of the hill on East Broadway at Murray Avenue.

Wells brought out the serious need of street crossings for the children in the area, and asked that one be located at Murray with a patrolman.

It was brought out that permission from the State Highway Department would have to be obtained to use a flagman and to paint a crossing on the street, by Councilman Robert Bader.

Wells then remarked, "I would hate to wait because of some technicality and get a child killed out there."

Bader then moved to establish a crossing and notify the Highway Department if it is necessary. The motion carried.

Councilman Edgar Neighbors then moved the City assign a school crossing guard at the location at the same rate of pay others are getting. His motion also carried.

Assistant Chief of Police Charles Knapp at the meeting called attention the crossing salary was not in the police budget, but the Council said it would be taken care of. Knapp said a study of the Horace Mann school crossing on 16th Street has been under study, after Councilman Floyd Priddy had remarked the PTA wants an officer out there.

Knapp pointed out the School Boy Patrol at Horace Mann was very efficient, but they also understood the situation and desires of the parents. "Rightfully so," he said, "and we are still working on the matter."

Collector's Office In Boonville Loses $12,750 In Theft

Earl Kirkpatrick, Cooper County collector, reported the theft of $12,750 in checks and currency from the collector's office in Boonville over the weekend.

He said he discovered the theft when he opened the office Monday morning. Only $750 was in currency. The rest was in checks, all of which had been stamped for deposit only.

The only possible signs of forced entry were found in the men's room on the first floor of the courthouse. Nails that had held a window shut had been removed from inside the rest room.

Kirkpatrick said the door to his office was locked upon his arrival. It locks automatically when shut, he said, but he is not certain it was closed completely Saturday afternoon when the office closed.

city may have failed to obtain in the issuance of building permits cannot be estimated. It was noted that the highest priced home built in Sedalia in the period in question was estimated at $24,000 by the builder who submitted no plans and specification in contradiction to the City Ordinance. The lowest priced new home was listed as costing $2,000; a few at $5,000 and $6,000; five at $7,000; five at $8,000; five at $9,000; five at $10,000; eight at $11,000; five at $12,000; three at $15,000; one at $17,000; one at $19,000; one at $20,000; and one at $22,000. There were some in between figures listed here.

Whether or not the city would have a recourse of going back to those home builders who have sold say a "$10,000 home" for $20,000, for example, and collecting the difference on what the builder paid for his permit, and what he sold the home for, less cost of land, is a question the city's legal advisor would have to answer.

The same would probably apply to those businesses that have made renovations or moves of buildings without the permits prescribed in the City Ordinance.

Mob Storms US Library In Jakarta

JAKARTA, Indonesia (AP) — A mob protesting America's policies toward the Congo and Malaysia stormed the U.S. Information Service library in the East Java capital of Surabaya Monday night, burning books, furniture, a mobile unit and a car.

It was the second U.S. library attacked by Indonesian demonstrators in four days. A mob stoned and sacked the American cultural center in Jakarta and its library last Friday, destroying about a fourth of the library's 15,000 books.

The Communist-led demonstrators are protesting America's participation with Belgium in the rescue of white hostages from Congolese rebels and U. S. support of Malaysia, which Indonesian President Sukarno has threatened to crush.

USIS Director Paul Neilson told a news conference a mob of about 1,000 banner-waving demonstrators smashed windows to enter the Surabaya library, which had been closed and locked in anticipation of trouble.

The mob hauled down the American flag and raised the Indonesian flag, wrecked the interior of the library, then threw furniture and books outside and built a bonfire with them.

The director of the library, James McHale, informed Neilson about a fourth of the library's 16,000 books were destroyed.

No American staff members were in the building, and Indonesian employees in the building were not hurt.

Neilson said Allan McLean, American consul at Surabaya, reported the "lightning raid" lasted half an hour and police did not arrive until after the demonstrators left.

McLean tried to contact the Surabaya authorities but no one was available to see him, Neilson said.

Scruton. I would rather wait and see how this thing comes out."

Councilman Snively then said he wanted to put it off and when Bader insisted on a vote, Snively moved to table Bader's motion. Bader then said, "If a motion to table takes precedent, let's vote on it."

Mayor L. L. Studer said, "It will be a roll-call vote."

Voting to table were Councilmen Snively, Jesse, Griffin, Priddy and Edgar Neighbors.

Those voting against were Councilmen Bader, Askren and Wells.

Under Street and Alley reports, Councilman Jesse asked bids be opened on salt and calcium chloride to be used on streets. Five bids were received: Herrman Lumber Co., $16.20 per ton for salt and $83.60 for the calcium chloride; Fred M. The bids were referred to the Street and Alley committee to select the lowest and best bid.

Jesse then asked permission to investigate acquisition of a street roller and a seven and a half-ton scraper the Civil Defense has in surplus at Jefferson City, and see if the cost would permit Sedalia to obtain them.

Councilman Edgar Neighbors, of the Parking Meter Committee, asked Jesse to investigate the purchase of a tool regarding meter posts which Jefferson City has. It was agreed to, and Jesse was given permission to make the investigations.

Councilman Bader requested permission for the Sanitation Department to spend $400 for new pistons and sleeves for the engine of a caterpillar used in that department. The machine's motor was damaged in a fire recently and the request was granted.

Permission was granted by the Council to Ed's Welding Supply and Equipment Co., to install a liquid oxygen tank at their property on West Main. The request also carried the approval of Fire Chief Emmett Vaughn, Chairman of the Zoning and Planning Commission Virgil Herrick, and the Building Inspector L. W. Dickman.

Bert E. Barnes, 59, 403 West Broadway, sustained a fractured left leg three inches below the knee in a fall Monday night. He was found by Police Officers Donald Stratton and Newt Raines after police had been informed a man was down in the yard at 501 West Broadway.

He was taken by police to Bothwell Hospital where he was treated by Dr. Karl Gonser and admitted.

Highway Patrol Trooper William T. Southwick, who was wounded Monday morning in a quail hunting accident, has been returned to his home here.

Southwick was off duty Monday morning and was hunting with Jerome Cummings, 1719 West Fourth, on a farm near LaMonte. Cummings fired at some quail and the charge hit Southwick in the face from a distance of 50 to 60 yards, it was reported.

Cummings said he thought Southwick was ahead of him so "I followed the birds off to the left and fired."

The trooper was first treated at Bothwell Hospital and then taken to the University of Missouri Medical Center, Columbia. He received 14 pellets in the face and one lodged near his left eye. Extent of injury to the eye was still undetermined and some of the pellets are yet to be removed. Southwick is scheduled to return Wednesday to the medical center for further examination.

He was returned to Sedalia late Monday by Patrol Zone Sgt. E. W. Van Winkle.

Mrs. Bertha Rose Welch, 1112 West Seventh, broke her ankle in a fall Monday afternoon. She was taken to Bothwell Hospital where she was treated and later admitted.

Both hospitalization ordinances were passed under an emergency clause.

An ordinance approving the State Highway Department's profile of roadways in Sedalia, Prospect to Limit on Main Street and the new Highway 50 area on 12th near the underpass, both a part of the Urban Plan, was given passage under the emergency clause.

Ordinances introduced for the first readings were the vacating of an alley between Main and Second streets, east from Dundee and blocked by new Highway 65; a street light ordinance for lights at Sylvia and Daryl, and one on Sylvia between Daryl and Ruth Ann; an Ordinance rezoning property along Main between Gentry and Highway 65 from R-3 to C-3, the latter ordinance approved by the zoning and planning commission in a letter to the council which was read at the first part of the meeting.

The ordinance changing the license classification of wholesale milk houses to $100 license and another which changed the reading of the $75 licenses to "except wholesale milk houses," were passed.

Featured Home Visited By Messerlys

A picture of the home of the late Mrs. Susan Lawrence Dana, built by the late Frank Lloyd Wright, architect, in Springfield, Ill., and a story about it appeared in the Kansas City Times Monday morning. Mrs. Dana was a friend of the Messerlys and visited the family here many times. Mrs. Charles Messerly has often been a guest in the home.

The article by Donald L. Hoffman, tells of the immensely productive career of Wright, but of the hundreds of buildings designed by him many were altered and some later demolished. This one home, however, still stands much as it was when it was built, and it is wonderfully preserved.

Mrs. Dana died in 1946 in her late 80s. She was the daughter of a millionaire and the wife of four men in succession. The house was built on a lot 241 by 160 feet with the south front running a city block. The outside included limestone, long cream-colored bricks, glazed terra cotta tiles, copper facing on the eaves and stained glass.

She led her mother to believe that Wright was to do a little remodeling and expansion of the old, Italian Renaissance style, family home which stood on the site. Wright let the walls of the new house rise around the intact old place, then began whittling away at it. In the end, all the poor old mother of Mrs. Dana had, the article said, was her marble fireplace in a little room hidden behind the reception hall.

Wright in 1908 described it as "a house designed to accommodate the art collection of its owner, for entertaining extensively, somewhat elaborately worked out detail. Fixtures and furnishings designed with the structure."

Fixtures and furnishings included fireplace grilles, carpets, chairs, tables, integrated sculptures in terra cotta and ornamental iron light fixtures studied with stained glass in harmony with rich stained glass windows used throughout the huge house. Even the gold velvet draperies and bedspreads were designed by Wright.

Inside, the house has three large living areas, one of them a library beneath it, a basement bowling lane, a pipe organ played with a roller system, and various pantries and sleeping rooms.

Mrs. Dana lost out in the social life as she aged and her eccentric way of life and she finally became mentally ill.

Charles C. Thomas, medical and scientific book publisher, bought the abandoned house for $17,500, getting one of the great steals in art history, according to the article. The publishing house has operated there 20 years and the Thomas family has restored the house, and left the fixtures and furnishings intact.

Three-year Sentence In Would-be Slaying

KANSAS CITY (AP) — Two men pleaded guilty Monday to a charge of assault with intent to kill in what police said was an attempted gangland-style execution.

Warner E. Allen, 29, of Milwaukee, and John Henry Kirk, 31, Benton Harbor, Mich., were sentenced to three years in prison by Circuit Judge Henry A. Riederer.

Carl Everett Foster, 34, of Kansas City, was taken at gunpoint from the basement lounge of a tavern last July 29 and was shot in the chest in a hallway outside the lounge. He recovered.

Police quoted witnesses as saying two men pointed guns at Foster and other customers, told Foster he talked too much then took him outside. Several shots were fired.

Kirk and Allen were arrested an hour later in St. Joseph, Mo.,

She's Medical History

Transplanted Kidneys Give Happy Life to 17-Year-Old

MINNEAPOLIS (AP) — A year ago Toni Beugen was making medical history.

Today she does a cartwheel if she feels like it and zips off to suburban St. Louis Park High School.

But in doing that she's still making medical history.

Toni, 17, was the subject of a pioneering operation at University of Minnesota hospitals in which she received two kidneys, transplanted to her body from a child who had died.

It was a breakthrough for doctors who had long wondered how to overcome the human body's tendency to reject tissue not its own.

"It's wonderful how the human mind can repress things it doesn't want to remember," Toni says. "I've completely forgotten the operation and never remember until somebody brings it up."

On the doctor's report the disease is listed as chronic nephritis.

In her own memory the trouble came on slowly, a feeling of increasing tiredness.

Doctors made the diagnosis but kept Toni going with drugs and a series of diets aimed at keeping a proper balance in her blood chemistry.

At one point her menus consisted of butter, sugar and various forms of water. Now she eats what she pleases.

In July 1963 her kidneys failed, and her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Beugen, began the search for a donor. Dozens volunteered, but none proved acceptable.

In September 1963 parents of a child who had just died after a fall agreed to the transplant. Their names have never been revealed, not even to Toni.

It was a year ago Monday that Toni went home from the hospital.

Now back to a port 110 pounds after once weighing only 77, Toni is maintaining a B-plus average in high school. She expects to study drama at the University of Minnesota after her graduation next June.

"The doctors are crossing their fingers with me," she says. "I'm their first experiment, their guinea pig, part of their equipment."

As to her own life, Toni evaluates it now as "completely normal."

Boy Drives 62 Miles In Busy Traffic

WESTMINSTER, Calif. (AP) — Whoever said experience is the best teacher had it all wrong — at least in young Stephen Dugman's case.

Stephen, 10, took his first driving lesson — solo — Monday. He drove to his aunt's home in Pacoima, Calif., 62 miles away, police said.

That, by itself, is a considerable accomplishment, as any veteran truck driver would admit. Stephen, however, took the joy ride during the peak traffic rush hour, navigating a long distance on the San Diego Freeway.

The freeway speed limit is 65 miles an hour. Stephen's speed was not determined.

Police learned of the trip from a neighbor, who reported at 8:15 a.m. he had seen the boy driving around the neighborhood.

Police contacted his mother, Mrs. Joseph Dugman, who said that she didn't know what had gotten into the boy.

Two hours later, officers said, Stephen showed up at his aunt's home. Bernice Watts, after she recovered from the shock, called Westminster, then had her 17-year-old son drive Stephen home — to a severe greeting.

Stephen, who stands only 4 feet 9 inches, sits considerably less, and can barely peep out of the windshield of his parents' 1964 compact car, officers said.

Police said apparently no one paid any attention to the boy as he drove through the heavy traffic, but Southern California traffic is like that — everyone is intent on one thing, getting there, and fast.

Investigators said Stephen's mother was told to bring him to the station, probably for a lecture. They said Stephen had probably already encountered one lecture — one he's still smarting over.

YOUR EYES AND VISUAL FUNCTIONS

With the Christmas season fast approaching almost all of us are thinking of gifts and giving. The press of worldly and material things all about us tends to make us forget the priceless gift of good vision. Next to life itself our sense of sight is God's most precious gift.

If you will look about you it will not be difficult to see someone — a parent, wife, husband or close relative, perhaps — who is neglecting eyes and this priceless sense of sight. There are many people, possibly yourself or members of your family, who are going along year after year without having eyes and vision carefully examined. The Missouri Optometric Association urgently advises one and all to give thought to eye and vision care and protection. There is no better way to insure good vision for the years ahead than to have careful, painstaking examinations made at frequent intervals.

When you are thinking of gifts and giving can you think of anything more helpful or worthwhile than a pair of much needed glasses for husband, wife or parent? For those disposed to help some needy person or relative at Christmas time the Missouri Optometric Association suggests that you arrange to have their eyes examined and provide a pair of well fitted glasses, if needed.

Remember, too, that your own eyes and vision are priceless and must be cared for and protected. If you have not had them carefully examined recently you can secure nothing more valuable than you will receive by having a thorough examination by a competent optometrist.

The members of the Missouri Optometric Association take this opportunity to wish for one and all greetings and great happiness during the Christmas season.

Green Ridge Gardeners Hold Holiday Party

Mrs. Whittall distributed year-books for 1965. Mrs. Nelle Ream reported she had purchased books and magazines for the Garden Center.

Mrs. Wilson Harbit, Sedalia, who has been ill for the past few months, sent thanks for letters, cards and flowers sent during her illness.

Exchange Christmas packages were judged by Mrs. L. B. Beach, Mrs. F. L. Calvert and Mrs. F. A. Easter. Mrs. Whittall was awarded first prize; Mrs. Fred Fiene, second; Mrs. Nelle Ream, third. Gifts were distributed to 22 members and three guests. Mrs. L. B. Beach, Mrs. F. L. Calvert and Mrs. F. A. Easter.

White cake and ice cream balls, decorated in red and green were served. Favors were candy cane and holly corsages. Several National Flower Arrangement and Garden calendars were distributed.

Christmas remembrances were brought by members to be delivered to community shut-ins. Mrs. J. A. Gordon is distribution chairman.

Strikes Law On Sharing Same Room

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Supreme Court has struck down a Florida law making it a crime for a Negro man and white woman, or a white man and Negro woman, habitually to occupy the same room at night.

Justice Byron R. White, for a unanimous court, said the Florida law represented "an exercise of the state police power which trenches upon the constitutionally protected freedom from invidious official discrimination based on race."

A Florida law prohibiting marriages between Negroes and whites was attacked in the same case, but White said the court was not expressing any views about that law in today's opinion. The court dealt solely with the statute dealing with persons of different races using the same room at night.

Explaining the court's ruling, White said that, because the section as to persons using the same room applies only to a white person and a Negro who commit the specified acts — living together — and because no couple other than the one made up of a white and a Negro is subject to conviction upon proof of the elements comprising the offense it proscribes, "we hold (the section) invalid as a denial of the equal protection of the laws guaranteed by the 14th Amendment."

Christmas remembrances were brought by members to be delivered to community shut-ins. Mrs. J. A. Gordon is distribution chairman.

EDITORIALS

An Area for Beautification

Now that Sedalians are anticipating sustained rather than sporadic effort by the city's sanitation department to meet the challenge of uniform collection of garbage on days following holidays, let all $1.00 per month customers look forward hopefully to its fulfillment.

The collection crews are doing a good job, but they need more assistance if the community is to be served properly with at least one weekly collection guaranteed by ordinance in the winter time—holidays or no holidays.

In keeping with comments on this delicate subject, there occurs a suggestion to which Sedalians may apply their talent either before the holidays or as a project for next Spring.

In either event it lends itself to the perennial objective of keeping Sedalia beautiful. Kay Sherwood of NEA, writing on the subject of better homemaking, has this to offer for consideration — beautifying a galvanized steel garbage can.

There are areas in the city where residents await the soft touch of greenery to camouflage the conspicuous utilitarian cans. But in the winter these are not easy to look at on the parkings; for instance, the winter landscape around the Elks Home where a more sedate appearance should prevail. We are pleased to report that temporarily at least, the Friday night smorgasbord will be discontinued, the aftermath of which has been the accumulation of garbage cans and piles of unsightly litter deposited for delayed collection at the Elks' curb line.

To correct such conditions as that in residential areas, Miss Sherwood's aesthetic suggestion is illustrated at the bottom of this editorial page. Adoption of the idea as a winter project should also help the paint business in an off season.

Painting garbage cans once presented certain problems, namely, the paint wouldn't stick indefinitely when exposed to the weather. Now after two years of research tests, galvanized steel producers have suggestions for the best paints to use on these galvanized surfaces.

For most conditions, zinc dust paints in an oil or alkyd base adhere best. Cement paints in an oil base work nearly as well and are recommended for one-coat color jobs. New exterior latex paints rate well. Eager ones must wait for 40 degree or higher temperatures to do painting of the cans outdoors.

What an opportunity for jaunty designs, flowers or birds, or multi-colored Christmas baubles in keeping with the spirit of adoption of expanded holiday collection of garbage. In this area the decorative motif could also be a morale builder.

If this suggestion is not in time for Christmas how about a New Year's resolution — more beautiful hand-painted garbage cans in Sedalia during 1965!

Steelworkers' Feud Affects Economy

By DREW PEARSON

WASHINGTON — A bitter battle is raging inside the steelworkers' union which may affect the entire economy of the nation. President Johnson is watching it carefully. Some advisers would like to have him intervene in order to prevent a serious round of inflation.

The battle is between his friend David McDonald, now President of the Steelworkers' Union, and I. W. Abel, the union's secretary-treasurer, who is challenging Dave for the presidency.

Both sides are doing some colorful name-calling. The opposition to McDonald is calling the handsome, silver-haired steelworkers' president a "frustrated actor who enjoys glamor more than the grime of the rolling mills." They assert Dave spends more time in Palm Springs, Calif., or the "21" Club in New York than in Pittsburgh or South Chicago.

They also point to McDonald's $50,000 salary plus expenses last year of $30,126.37—total $80,126.37.

They also point to his brother Joe's union salary of $13,219.50 plus expenses of $14,465.26, for a total of $27,684.76.

Finally, they point out that Dave's chief lobbyist, ex-Notre Dame football star Frank "Nurdy" Hoffman, gets an expense account of $48,808.22 plus his salary of $16,000. Hoffman's job is to entertain members of Congress and get legislation passed in Washington.

On the other hand, McDonald's supporters accuse Abel of drawing expenses of $20,584.21 plus a salary of $35,000, for a total of $55,584.21.

Incidentally, the union last year paid its

Looking Backward

TWENTY-FIVE YEARS AGO

Dr. A. L. Walter was elected president of the Pettis County Medical Society at a meeting at Bothwell Hospital. He succeeds Dr. C. D. Osborne. Dr. A. E. Monroe was re-elected treasurer after many years of service in that office. Other officers are: Dr. Frank B. Long, vice-president and Dr. C. H. Brady, secretary. Dr. Osborne was named delegate to the state medical meeting with Dr. D. P. Dyer as alternate. Members of the Board of Censors are: Dr. M. P. Shy, Dr. Cord Bohling and Dr. A. J. Campbell.

FORTY YEARS AGO

The number of hunting licenses issued in Pettis county the past month has far exceeded the number issued during any one month heretofore, according to Charles Ewen, county clerk. There were 725 county licenses and 46 state licenses issued.

— 1924 —

The Missouri Grange in convention at Moberly elected M. O. Stevens, overseer; and Mrs. Luther Landis, lecturer. Both are from Sedalia.

top officials the rather generous total of $6,051,320 in salaries, plus personal expenses of $4,141,240.38.

McDonald's Achievements

What McDonald's critics overlook is that he has done one of the most outstanding jobs in the trade union movement by setting up the Human Relations Council which has ironed out labor disputes without strikes.

However, this type of bargaining has taken McDonald out of the rolling mills and into the Duquesne Club, the sacred inner sanctum of the steel executives. As a result, if Dave walked through one of the plants outside Youngstown or Chicago today, few of his men would recognize him.

This is what his opponents are making the most of. They are led by Joe Germano of South Chicago and Joe Malony of New York, both close to the picket line and both backing I. W. Abel.

Abel has the reputation of being a troublemaker, and in his campaign literature against McDonald promises union members that he will give jurisdiction back to the locals. This means more likelihood of strikes.

This is where President Johnson is deeply concerned. It isn't merely that McDonald happens to be a friend who went down the line for him in the recent election.

It's also the fact that either a steel strike or a wage boost would almost certainly lead to an increase in the price of steel.

Disastrous Inflation?
Johnson was on the long distance telephone last fall persuading steel executives not to increase prices. So far he has been successful. At one time they were on the verge of a price increase, and it was only Lyndon's compulsive eloquence that persuaded them to change their minds.

But the round of rough bargaining and wage increases that would almost certainly follow the election of the anti-McDonald faction would make it impossible for Johnson to further prevent price increases.

As a young congressman under Franklin Roosevelt, the President vividly remembers what happened when FDR let the steel industry increase prices in 1937. Simultaneously, the Federal Reserve Board used the discount rate — as the Federal Reserve Board did last month. The combination led to the disastrous 1938 depression. And it took two years and the war to bring the United States out.

Ten years later, Johnson watched a similar situation under Eisenhower when in 1957 the steel industry raised prices, though operating at only around 50 per cent capacity. In '57, automobile production had been 6.1 million cars. Next year, 1958, auto production dropped to 4.2 million cars.

If there is a steel price increase in 1965—as is certain if there is a wage increase—it will mean higher priced automobiles, less automobile production, less housing construction, and possibly the start of an economic tailspin.

All this is why President Johnson is watching the bitter feud inside the steelworkers' union. It's also why he lectured the bankers so eloquently against increasing interest rates that the First National Bank of Boston rescinded its rate hike.

The President may be forced to throw his weight behind McDonald and make clear the reasons he supports him—namely, that another round of inflation would mean depreciation of labor's pension values, an increase in the cost of labor's food, and increase in the cost of housing. Furthermore, it would affect the pocketbook of every citizen in the nation.

The World Today

GOP Leaders Seek To Unify Party

By JAMES MARLOW
Associated Press News Analyst

WASHINGTON (AP) — Somebody mention unity?

There are about a dozen dictionary definitions of unity and this may explain the lack of it among Republicans who want their defeated party to unite.

Dean Burch says he wants unity although over the weekend some Republican governors said they want him fired as chairman of the Republican National Committee, a job he got through Sen. Barry Goldwater.

The governors in Denver issued a statement calling for party unity and, among other things, suggesting the national committee take a good look at its leadership.

Some of them said this wasn't aimed at Burch; some said it definitely was. Particularly Govs. George Romney of Michigan, Nelson A. Rockefeller of New York and William W. Scranton of Pennsylvania said they want Burch out.

Burch, whether or not he was a good chairman, was a terrible prophet for on election night, Nov. 3, with the roof falling in on Goldwater, he cheerfully predicted: "This picture is going to brighten considerably as the sun moves toward the West."

The final news from the West was even worse. Goldwater lost every Western state except his own Arizona.

But Monday, in a statement which some interpreted as a move to soothe his critics and keep his job, Burch called for unity.

"It now remains for all of us, governors, senators, congressmen, state chairmen, national committee members and workers, to demonstrate that the Republican party seeks strength through unity — not weakness and even impotence through needless quarreling and disunity."

At the same time his right-hand man — John Grenier, executive director of the national committee — quit with a statement which could hardly be considered a unifier or a pacifier.

Grenier, a fervent Goldwaterite, had been under criticism, too. His sudden departure, so soon after the governors' statement, could be considered an effort to cool off attacks on Burch and the committee.

But Grenier didn't seem obsessed by unity when he called in newsmen to announce he was leaving.

He said he will defend Burch and blamed a big part of Goldwater's defeat on "so-called Goldwater's": Romney, Rockefeller and Scranton. He said he was leaving to resume his law practice in Alabama.

The urge toward unity among Republicans is not new although it has taken strange turns. It began right after the election.

Richard M. Nixon, former vice president who campaigned for Goldwater, said the party needs unifiers, not dividers, and then attacked Rockefeller who didn't campaign for Goldwater, as one of the principal dividers. He called Rockefeller, a "Spoilsport" and Rockefeller called him "peevish."

About the same time former President Dwight D. Eisenhower was saying he thought Nixon would play a great role in unifying the party. But Robert E. Smylie, Republican governor of Idaho, was just then calling for Burch's ouster.

Goldwater after the election suggested it might be a good idea to realign the Democratic and Republican parties into "two new teams" under "liberal" and "conservative" banners.

But Henry Cabot Lodge, who had been a senator and ambassador to South Viet Nam, thought this was such a bad idea he called it "totally abhorrent to the American two-party system."

While Goldwater said he intends to retain the party leadership, he also said the real source of the leadership is in Sen. Everett M. Dirksen of Illinois, Republican Senate leader, and Indiana's Charles A. Halleck, Republican House leader.

But Dirksen apparently does not want to get into any fights. He said: "I intend to stand still. I intend to do a lot of thinking and get a new perspective."

THE DOCTOR'S MAILBAG

Allergist Must Track Down Allergic Rhinitis

By Wayne G. Brandstadt, M.D.
Newspaper Enterprise Association

Q—What is allergic rhinitis?
What could cause it? My doctor says I have it but he didn't give me anything for it.

A—Allergic rhinitis is closely related to hay fever but is less likely to be seasonal. It may be caused by the inhalation of house dust, certain types of face powder, molds, and animal dander including that of birds. A doctor specially trained in allergic diseases might be able to track down the specific cause in your case and desensitize you or help you to avoid the offender. Meanwhile for temporary relief have your doctor give you one of the antihistaminic drugs.

Q—I have been taking Rauwoid and Equanilate for some time. My doctor says I will have to take them for the rest of my life. What are they for?

A—Alseroxylon (Rauwoid) is a tranquilizer derived from Rauwolfia serpentina and Equanilate is a combination of a tranquilizer and one of the nitrates given for angina pectoris. Since angina and coronary heart disease can be controlled but cannot be cured, prolonged treatment is required.

Q—About a year ago I had a hemorrhage from my mouth. My doctor said the blood was from varicose veins in my esophagus. He did an operation that he called a "portal shunt." What is this and will my varicose veins bleed any more?

A—In persons with cirrhosis of the liver there is some obstruction of the portal vein which carries blood to the liver. Damming back of blood in this vein results, among other things, in a varicose condition of the esophagus. These vessels may be easily ruptured and may bleed profusely. A shunting of the portal blood around the liver is accomplished by transplanting the vein. Since blood is able to reach the liver through the vessels this does no harm and the results are usually good. After such a shunt it is most unlikely that you will have any more bleeding from the esophagus. The next step is to determine and treat the cause of the cirrhosis.

Q—I have been taking Pentritol twice a day. Is it habit-forming? What is it for?

A—Pentaerythritol tetranitrate (Pentritol) is given for angina pectoris. It is not habit-forming. Persons who have glaucoma should not take this or any other of the nitrates given for angina.

We the Women

Wives Rate Break, Too

By Ruth Millett
Newspaper Enterprise Assn.

Wouldn't it be wonderful if husbands would do some of those things to please their wives that women are forever being told they should do to please their husbands?

For instance: Why shouldn't a husband wait until he has his wife in a nice, relaxed mood (after taking her out to dinner, for example), before breaking a piece of bad news, instead of letting her have it the moment he walks through the door? (Women are always told to feed the brute before mentioning that Johnny flunked the first grade or that a fender on the new car got crumpled in the shopping center parking lot.)

Couldn't a husband get up fifteen minutes before his wife and get rid of that 7 a.m. shadow so that her first sight of him in the morning would show him freshly shaved? (Why not, when women are constantly being urged to get up, comb their hair and put on lipstick before waking the lord and master?) And couldn't a husband be told to come home wearing a cheerful grin, instead of looking beat? (Wives are forever being cautioned on the importance of greeting their homecoming husbands with a happy smile of welcome — and a freshly lipstick-sticked one, at that.)

And how about a husband's making a real effort to share his wife's hobbies and interests? (Wives are told over and over that it's a wife's duty to make HIS interests HER interests.)

Wouldn't it be wonderful if husbands were expected to try as hard to please their wives as wives are expected to work to please their husbands?

Dampen Clothes in Dryer

By Polly Cramer
Newspaper Enterprise Assn.

DEAR POLLY— An excellent way to dampen clothes is to place in the dryer one load of clothes to be ironed and two thoroughly wet towels. Push the button to "No Heat" and set the timer for 15 minutes. The clothes will iron beautifully as every piece gets an equal proportion of dampness. — HAPPY WITH DISCOVERY

GIRLS— Betty tried this and loved it. She says it certainly frees a lot of storage space in the freezer or refrigerator if that is where you have been keeping clothes to be ironed. — POLLY

DEAR POLLY— I keep a fresh, soap-filled scouring pad, wrapped in an old clean rag, twisted around my outside water faucet. When we return from one of our frequent fishing jaunts or a picnic, the materials are right at hand for a quick cleaning of the portable grill. No mess in the house nor trip inside to get the cleaning supplies. — HELEN

'The First Christmas'

The bad sheep's name was Trouble, for he was always getting into mischief. And he had black fleece; all the others were white. He led Dav a merry chase, and only Shep, the dog, saved the day.

For instead of grazing quietly in the fields, Trouble would suddenly kick up his heels and dash away.

It was then that Dav called Shep. Shep took off with a joyous bark, and in no time at all Trouble was back in the flock.

Vote Affirmed Involvement Of US In World Community

KANSAS CITY (AP)—United States voters in November bade a final goodbye to isolation and affirmed this nation's deep involvement in the world community, a State Department official says.

Harlan Cleveland, assistant secretary of state for international organization affairs, spoke Saturday night at the closing convention session of Sigma Delta Chi, national journalism society.

He said the people gave the government a strong mandate to work with other nations to save the world from poverty, conformity and war.

"Our aim is to help create a world safe for diversity.... of independent nations following

Five members of Knob Noster Community Betterment committee attended the first day of the first annual Missouri Community Betterment Awards Banquet and Conference in Jefferson City Dec. 2. The theme of the meeting was "Wake the Town and Tell the People."

Committee members and workshops they attended were: Mrs. E. O. Price, industrial development; Mrs. Richard Zink, youth; Mrs. F. M. Crowder, beautification; Mrs. Merle Matthews, recreation and culture; and Maynard Duzan, education.

"The value of negotiations even with those who would declare themselves our adversaries was called into question in this campaign. But the people remembered a dead President's advice and quietly affirmed that they would never negotiate out of fear, and never fear to negotiate."

Twenty times since World War II, he said, organized fighting has begun and stopped without ultimatum or surrender, without victory or defeat. In another time, he said, each would have led to a full-scale war.

Cleveland said the voters rejected the "self-deprecating caricature of Boobus Americanus, a naive dumb cluck bound to be done in by slick foreigners."

Offers Help In Yuletide Giving

Assistance for organizations or individuals wishing to contribute food baskets, clothing, toys, checks, money or other gifts for underprivileged at Christmas will be given again this year by the Pettis County Welfare office, according to Warren Swanson, director. The welfare office, which has no funds allocated for those purposes, nevertheless, is informed about who would benefit during the holidays.

In discussing the problem of the less fortunate at the yule season, Swanson said (such families as those receiving aid to Dependent Children, blind, aged or incapacitated individuals, those with meager incomes and those temporarily employed), they haven't enough money for Christmas dinner and holiday extras after meeting expenses for necessities. The welfare office may be contacted by groups or persons wishing more information to assist with contributions.

"My advice, sir-get DE-ICER!"

Gas line freeze can happen to anybody, but when you're young and in a hurry, it's a disaster. Here's what gas line freeze is. Moisture collects in a gas line. It freezes. The flow of fuel to the engine of the car is choked off, frozen tight. You're stopped cold. Luckily, there's a simple solution to this wintertime worry. Be a steady user of either American Regular Gasoline or American Super-Premium. They contain the real thing—DE-ICER—to prevent gas line freeze. No extra cost. No wonder Standard Oil Dealers say: "My advice, sir-get DE-ICER!"

You expect more from Standard and you get it

"DE-ICER" is the trademark for Standard's gas line anti-freeze additive.

S-C Tigers Whip Marshall For First Season Victory

77-40 Triumph Boosts Local Squad's Morale

By RONNIE COWAN

The Smith-Cotton Tigers' bid for their first victory of the season met with success before an enthusiastic home crowd which nearly filled the school gymnasium.

The Marshall Owls fell prey to the charged-up Bengals by the 37 point margin of 77-40.

Amidst the relentless cheering of the Tiger rooters and the verbal support of the contingent of Owl backers who came along to boost their team, the Tigers poured on the coal throughout the game with seemingly little letup.

This victory was one the Tigers needed not only for a win in the record books but more important to convince themselves, after two consecutive losses, that they had not lost the old touch between seasons.

Also the conquest of Marshall helped uplift to its normal lofty position, a team morale which, admittedly, had sagged slightly, as it must after the two defeats which Smith-Cotton had endured.

As a foretelling of the elating event to follow, the junior varsity Tigers took control of their game, both in rebounds and in shooting for a 42 to 30 thumping of the Owls' B-team.

The Tigers began the lopsided contest the way it continued during its entirety. Eight points had been registered on the Tiger side of the scoreboard before the Owls could sink a basket.

Barry Wallace the game's high scorer, with 28 points, made the first period his most productive, pushing in 11 of the 19 points tallied by Sedalia in that period.

Hubert Crawford, the Tigers' 6-2 forward, also made known his efforts in the team's cause. Crawford shot the ball for six field goals during the game, enough for second place team scoring honors.

Close behind Crawford with ten points was the other Smith-Cotton forward, Cy Casey. Casey was also outstanding in the rebound department, counting on his powerful, spring-like legs to help insure the Tiger victory.

The second stanza proved to be even more successful than the first, with 22 points being sunk through the hoop, compared to the Owls' 14.

Duane Farmer, Marshall's 6-5 center, did most of the scoring for the Owls with 12 points.

The Wolverines, who lost only one regular in the nation last year gained 32 of the 34 first-place votes cast and had a whopping 100-point margin over second-place Wichita.

Michigan, which already has survived two major tests, gained 337 points in the balloting on the basis of 10 points for first, 9 for second, 8 for third etc. Wichita, winner of its only start this season, moved up from third in the pre-season poll to second with 236 points.

A flock of upsets and surprises in the first week prompted a major shuffling of the first weekly ratings from the pre-season poll, with only top-ranking Michigan and 10th ranked St. John's of New York holding onto the same spots.

Three of the pre-season elite, fourth-ranked Davidson, No. 7 Syracuse and No. 8 Kansas State, split their two first-week starts and dropped from the top ten. UCLA, the defending national champion and No. 2 in the pre-season picks, also split, and plummeted to No. 7 after an opening loss to Illinois, 110-83.

The top ten, with first-place votes in parentheses, are:

1. Michigan (32)	337
2. Wichita	236
3. Vanderbilt	189
4. St. Louis	170
5. San Francisco	140
6. Minnesota (1)	133
7. UCLA	86
8. Duke	83
9. Kentucky	62
10. St. John's, N.Y.	59

Others receiving votes included Bradley, Kansas, Kansas State, Louisville and Missouri.

Cappelletti Better Own Scoring Record

NEW YORK (AP) — Gino Cappelletti, Boston's top pass catcher and field-goal kicker, has bettered his own American Football League scoring record with 155 points. He set the old mark of 147 in 1961.

The 30-year-old pride of the Patriots scored a touchdown on a pass from Babe Parilli, kicked a 12-yard field goal and added four conversions in Boston's 31-24 victory over Kansas City Sunday.

Cookie Gilchrist, Buffalo fullback, leads Matt Snell, the New York rookie, by 71 yards in their battle for the rushing lead. Each player has two games to go. Gilchrist has gained 862 yards in 193 attempts, Snell 791 in 178. Each has a 4.4 average.

Len Dawson of Kansas City still leads the passers.

Wildcats Moving Up The Ladder

By DICK COUCH

Associated Press Sports Writer

Villanova's Wildcats are scratching their way up the college basketball ladder. Their Kentucky cousins may be up a tree.

Bill Melchioni's jump shot with 22 seconds to go in overtime lifted Villanova past Princeton's Ivy League champions 61-60 Monday night while North Carolina was caging the nationally ranked Kentucky 'Cats 82-67.

The developments at Philadelphia and Charlotte, N.C., came too late to affect the Associated Press weekly ratings, released today with Kentucky in the No. 9 spot and Villanova barely outside the top ten. A shuffle on the next go-round is likely, however, with Villanova assuming the role of top 'Cat.

Top-ranked Michigan, meanwhile, cleared its bench early while brushing off Missouri 91-61 and Kansas State, knocked out of the top ten by Indiana last Saturday, rebounded against Southern Illinois 61-48.

Indiana whipped Oklahoma 87-79; Ohio State beat Houston 77-69; Bradley edged Murray State 76-74; Tennessee topped Georgia Tech 66-52; Utah State thumped Pacific 98-74 and Arizona surprised Texas Tech 83-76 in other games involving national powers.

Tonight's top games match third-ranked Vanderbilt against Western Kentucky; San Francisco, No. 5, vs. San Francisco State; Minnesota, No. 6, vs. Marquette, and St. John's, No. 10, vs. Holy Cross.

Melchioni outscored Bill Bradley, Princeton's All-American sharpshooter, 24-23 as Villanova ran its record to 3-0. The Wildcats' junior star fired the winning two-pointer after Bill Kingdon's layup had put Princeton ahead with one-half minute left in the extra session.

The Tigers froze the ball for the last two minutes of regulation play but Bradley missed a jump shot with two seconds remaining and the teams went into overtime deadlocked at 54-all.

The tall Tar Heels poured in 20 points in the last 5½ minutes to pull away from Kentucky. Sophomore Bob Lewis led the winners with 23 points, one more than teammate Billy Cunningham, who played the last 17 minutes with four personal fouls. North Carolina has won three of four starts. The Wildcats are 1-1.

Michigan, sweeping both backboards, raced to a 46-26 halftime lead over the visitors from the Big Eight Conference and breezed to its third straight victory with reserves seeing more action than regulars. Bill Buntin led Wolverine scorers with 14 points.

Supreme Court held the IBC violated anti-trust laws and ordered it dissolved.

Yeagain was severely beaten after a fight in Tulsa, Okla. four years ago and hospitalized for three months. He charged his opposition to the IBC was the cause of the beating.

Democratic-Capital Class Ads Are Workers You Can Afford To Hire! Dial TA 6-1000.

The fight was originally set for Oct. 23 in Las Vegas, then postponed. Curtis Howard, Telegraph president, wrote Yeagain Nov. 19 announcing the new date and advising him to make arrangements.

The Telegraph wired Yeagain last Thursday its closed circuit rights "are deemed terminated." No reason was given.

Yeagain said Mike DeCarlo, Giardello's attorney, "told me by phone I would have to pay another $1,200 to get the fight on the closed circuit. He just ignored my contract."

Yeagain said Wildman told him "he had other complaints from exhibitors like myself—he didn't say how many."

"It's my opinion they may fear reprisals."

Yeagain was one of a small group that fought Jim Norris, former head of the old International Boxing Club. The U.S.

Crown For Dean Chance

BOSTON (AP) — Dean Chance, 23-year-old Los Angeles Angels' right-hander posted the lowest average in 21 years in winning the American League's earned-run championship last season, the official figures disclosed today.

Chance yielded only 51 earned runs in 278 innings for a 1.65 mark, the best since Spud Chandler of the New York Yankees finished with 1.64 in 1943. Chance was named winner of the Cy Young as the majors' outstanding pitcher in 1964 last month.

The Angels' star also pitched the most innings, 278, the most complete games, 15, and the most shutouts, 11. Five of his 20 victories were by 1-0 scores, tying a major league record.

Joel Horlen of the Chicago White Sox was second in the ERA competition with 1.88. He was followed by Whitey Ford of the Yankees, a two-time earned run king, 2.13; Gary Peters of the White Sox 2.50, Juan Pizarro, another Chicago left-hander, 2.56, and rookie Wally Bunker of Baltimore, 2.69.

Bunker had the highest winning percentage, .792, on a record of 19 victories and only five defeats.
